

HOUSING FORWARD

2025 Annual

Report

A Year of Purpose and Progress

Each year, we are grateful for the opportunity to reflect on the progress we've made together as a community. Ending homelessness requires adaptability and a shared commitment. At Housing Forward, we are guided by a simple belief: housing is a human right. That belief shapes our work each day as we help individuals and families secure stability and move toward permanent housing.

In 2025, 2,232 people were impacted by our services.

We responded to evolving needs with intention, strengthening our capacity, refining our approach, and expanding access to housing resources. In 2025 we launched two new population-specific housing programs designed to meet people where they are.

Housing and Health Integrated Pathways (HHIP) is a housing intervention for individuals experiencing homelessness prior to discharge from Madden Mental Health Center. Housing Forward provides a safe transitional option for participants to recover post-hospitalization. We also link participants to behavioral health services, case management, housing navigation, and a path to stability through transitional housing. The program also supports direct outreach to unsheltered individuals with mental illness at the CTA Blue Line Forest Park station every Thursday night. Our other new program, Reconnect, provides rental assistance and services for eligible Cook County residents returning to the community after incarceration.

In October, we opened the doors of the Anderson Emergency Shelter, a year-round, fixed-site overnight shelter. The shelter is named in honor of Tri-Village P.A.D.S. founding member and longtime advocate Pat Anderson, who was honored at our ribbon cutting celebration. The new facility at 112 S. Humphrey Avenue in Oak Park allows us to double our nightly capacity from 20 to 40 beds. It is equipped with a full commercial kitchen, showers, laundry, and space for our weekly medical clinic. The project was completed through generous investments from the Village of Oak Park and the Cook County Department of Planning and Development.

Since purchasing the former Write Inn Hotel in 2023, we have worked with public and private partners to secure financing to transform the building into a permanent home for our RISE Center Medical Respite and Interim Housing Programs. This year, we were one of just four organizations in Illinois awarded funding through the Illinois Housing Development Authority, securing our largest investment to date—$9.53 million. This transformational investment was a critical milestone that allows us to begin renovations in the coming months. Over the next year, we will complete extensive interior and exterior improvements to the building, establishing the site as a cornerstone of our response to homelessness.

There is important work ahead in 2026, and only together can we make meaningful progress. Every day, decisions being made at the federal level are creating instability and threatening decades of progress for homeless services. While we do not know the full impact of these challenges, we do know this: meaningful change has always started locally. When things feel out of control, community matters more than ever. Our three-decade-strong work serving west suburban Cook County would not be possible without the dedication of our staff, the generosity of our donors, the commitment of our volunteers, and the trust of the communities we serve. Thank you for standing with us as we continue to create lasting change.

Our approach to ending homelessness

Our work is about helping people move from housing crisis to lasting housing stability and we recognize that ending homelessness means addressing it at all levels.

Our programs are designed to meet the immediate needs of each individual or family who is seeking services. Every day, we work to prevent homelessness whenever possible, respond to housing crises when they do occur, and stabilize people with supportive services and housing.

PREVENT

The most humane, cost-effective solution to homelessness is stopping it before it happens. We do this through diversion case management and financial assistance.

RESPOND

We identify and connect people experiencing homelessness with basic needs like shelter, safety and food. Then we link them to services to begin resolving their crisis immediately.

STABILIZE

Safe, stable housing is the foundation on which people become self-sufficient and rebuild their confidence so they can live, and thrive, in their community.

Looking Back on a Decade of Growth

Stable housing has always been the goal. The paths people take to get there continue to evolve.

In August 2025, we introduced a new logo, designed to make it easier for anyone who needs us to find the right resources and understand what we offer. As our programs have evolved, so must the images and words we use to describe them.

We've come a long way, together.

Housing Forward would not exist today without the volunteers and congregations who took action more than three decades ago. In the early days we were known as Tri-Village P.A.D.S., and our purpose was clear: respond to the crisis of homelessness in west suburban Cook County. In 1992, our first year as Tri-Village P.A.D.S., we provided a warm meal and a safe place to sleep for more than 100 people.

By 2015, our organization had outgrown its name as our work expanded to include a greater focus on housing and prevention. We became Housing Forward to better reflect our new programs and our comprehensive approach to addressing homelessness. This change marked a turning point for the organization, and ushered in a decade of significant growth and innovation.

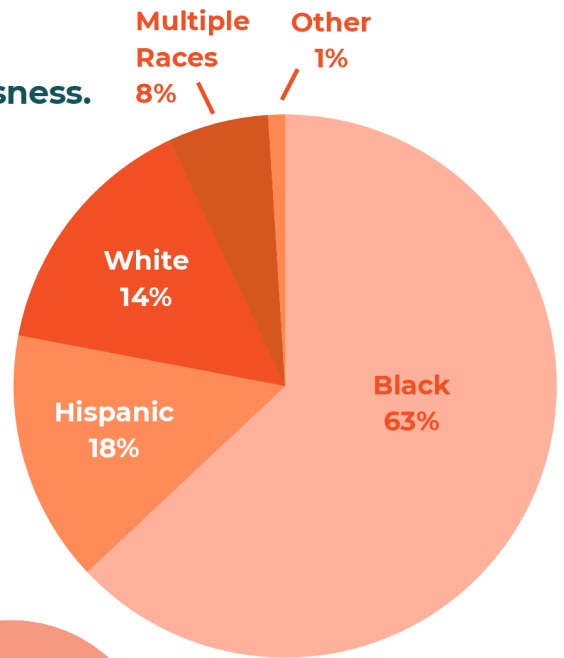

Over the past 10 years, we have transformed how we address homelessness in the communities we serve. We have reinforced our prevention services by designing diversion practices that help individuals avoid homelessness before it begins. We have strengthened partnerships with hospitals, government agencies, and local nonprofits, creating a more coordinated response and a stronger regional safety net. And we adapted through a global pandemic that fundamentally reshaped our shelter service model.

Who We Serve

There is no one "face" or one cause of homelessness.

- The people Housing Forward assists are a diverse group of individuals and families who have one thing in common: they have experienced a catastrophic housing or financial crisis.
- Often, that crisis is precipitated and/or complicated by a physical disability, chronic health condition, or behavioral health disorder, conditions that are exacerbated by the lack of access to proper care and resources.

Meet Cach

At age 23, after leaving a domestic violence situation, Cach moved in with her mother. However, the stability she hoped for was short-lived—her mom was battling stage 4 breast cancer and passed away just two weeks after her 40th birthday. This left a grief-stricken Cach at a crossroads. “I was back and forth with my ex, and I was going through emotional, physical and financial abuse. I was battling whether I wanted to stay or do what was best for me and leave... eventually I wandered off on my own and started sleeping outside,” Cach recalls. “I was worried and constantly trying to figure out where I was going to lay my head every night, how I was going to eat.”

After several weeks, Cach began returning to the same place each night, somewhere she felt a sense of safety: the backyard of a woman named Ms. Cheryl. Ms. Cheryl first noticed Cach on her Ring home security camera. Over time, she worked to build trust, bringing Cach blankets and food. She was often joined by her neighbor, Ms. Pat. Together, Ms. Cheryl and Ms. Pat encouraged Cach to visit Housing Forward’s Support Center to explore available resources. “I was scared. I was nervous. I was embarrassed,” she says. “I’ve never really been the type of person to be open about my situation. But I knew I had people willing to hear me out, listen, understand, and help me as best they could.”

At Housing Forward, Family Support Specialist Ebony recognized the trust that had already been established between Cach and Ms. Pat. She also saw an opportunity for diversion—a practice that provides one-time financial assistance to help someone secure a temporary place to stay.

Ebony provided Ms. Pat and Cach with $1,000 to cover food, clothing, and other essentials, and Cach moved in with Ms. Pat.

Cach has now been staying with Ms. Pat for several months, and in that time, they have developed a close relationship. With a stable place to stay, Cach has been able to save money and is now searching for a place of her own. Today, she is working as a certified behavioral therapist with children with autism.

“Sometimes it feels too good to be true. I’ve come a long way. I am strong. At first, I probably wouldn’t have been able to say that—but through the people who helped me, I can.”

Meet Justin

Justin is a veteran and former combat medic with the Illinois National Guard. Following his honorable discharge in 2009, he moved back home to help support his parents. Though he had success during his military service, Justin struggled with his mental health since his teens and often relied on alcohol as a way to cope. In hopes of improving his mental health, he decided to get sober. However, Justin's newfound sobriety triggered a hypomanic episode that disrupted his life at home.

His mental health worsened, and tensions grew between him and his parents, so he made the decision to leave home. Justin stayed in hotels for several weeks but soon his savings ran out. He began living out of his car in the Hines VA parking lot. During some of the coldest months of the year, Justin struggled to rest and focus on his well-being. "I was in survival mode."

Around this time, he began visiting the emergency room to get help with his mental health. Nearly a month later, he received a bipolar diagnosis. Eventually, with the right medication, his mood began to stabilize. Throughout some of his darkest days, Justin says he was able to maintain his sobriety. "I honestly felt hopeful. I knew everything would work out well if I stayed sober."

A few months later, Justin was connected to Housing Forward and his case manager, Sonny. Together, they made a plan for housing and began searching for an apartment. In April, Justin moved into a place of his own through Housing Forward's Victory's Path program, a partnership with Hines VA. He says he loves his new neighborhood, especially the restaurants and art scene. "I could finally relax and breathe. Everything just fell into place," says Justin.

"Housing Forward really instills hope. Everyone has been so wonderful, and Sonny feels like family to me at this point."

Today, Justin is just a few credits away from becoming a certified recovery support specialist. Once certified, he will be able to help counsel other veterans as they work toward their own sobriety. He is also working toward his bachelor's degree to become an addiction counselor.

Now that he has his own place, he's looking forward to being matched with an emotional support dog through the Pets for Vets program. "I feel like I have all the opportunities in the world now."

Meet Shirelle

In November 2023, Shirelle experienced a life-changing loss—her oldest son, Tramon, was shot and killed while delivering food for Uber Eats. Her stepson, Terrance, was also critically wounded in the shooting but survived.

In the months that followed, grief consumed Shirelle. “For six months I was hollow,” she says. “I was existing, but I didn’t exist.” She stepped away from her work as a home health care aide to focus on her family, processing the trauma while supporting her stepson through a long recovery that ultimately required nine surgeries.

At the same time, her housing became unstable. Shirelle and her husband had been living with Tramon, and after his death, they were unable to re-sign the lease. With damaged credit and limited income, finding a new place to live felt out of reach. They moved from hotel to hotel, watching their savings quickly disappear. “I had nowhere else to turn,” she recalls.

After exhausting their resources, the situation reached a breaking point. Shirelle was admitted to Loyola Hospital with shortness of breath, where a social worker recognized her need for both mental health and housing support. She and her husband were referred to Housing Forward and connected with a case manager, Franchesca.

Shirelle began receiving mental health care at Loyola while also working toward stable housing with Housing Forward. With guidance from her case manager, she secured a Rapid Re-Housing apartment, where she receives a temporary subsidy as she prepares to take over the lease.

Today, Shirelle has returned to her work supporting adults with memory loss. “I love my seniors. Every day when you wake up, there’s something to be learned, to be taught,” she says. She remains devoted to her family, especially her two-year-old granddaughter, whom she calls Tramon’s “mini-me.” She has also found community in a support group for parents who have lost children to violence and has found comfort in learning new stories about her son shared by others online.

“Now I know that God only gives us his angels for a little while,” she says. “Tramon was my gentle giant.”
